Association's History

In January of 1995, a U.S.A.F. Air Police veteran, John Langley, saw a need to organize an association that would recognize the contributions made by the Air Police, later called Security Police, who served in Vietnam and Thailand. It was shortly after that time that the Vietnam Security Police Association came to life.

John's enthusiasm quickly spread to other former SPs that performed rather unique duties in that Southeast Asian War. Unlike many other veteran organizations, this was to be for the thousands of SPs that wanted an association where they could share their experiences and enjoy the camaraderie of their fellow veterans.

Today, the V.S.P.A. is over 250 members strong and growing. It was quickly discovered that locating former SPs after 25-30 years was no easy task. But with the growth and the excitement it generated, over 300 former SPs have been located and it is our goal to be the "Best"!

The Blue Beret

The Army has its claim to fame
The airborne rangers, the green beret
The world knows of the Navy SEALs
Life of danger, men of steel,
The Corps have their elite too
Recon patrol, the proud, the few.
But when it comes to us
Not much is heard.

We're just the cops who guard the birds.
In Vietnam, through toil and strife
We gave it all, our hearts, our lives.
A page in history, a chapter in time.
We fought for freedom, yours and mine.
We remain vigilant, through the cold and rain
And bear the fatigue, hardship and pain.
This piece of ground, we will defend
Side by side, till the bitter end.
So fear not, pilot, you can fly all day,
This base is guarded
By the Blue Beret.

Roy H. Miyaji, SSgt USAF

Creed of A Security Policeman

I am a security policeman. I hold allegiance to my country, devotion to duty, and personal integrity above all. I wear my badge of authority with dignity and restraint, and promote by example high standards of conduct, appearance, courtesy, and performance. I seek no favor because of my position. I perform my duties in a firm, courteous, and impartial manner, irrespective of a person's color, race, religion, national origin, or sex. I strive to merit the respect of my fellow airmen and all with whom I come in contact.
