Association History

In January of 1995, a USAF Air Police veteran, John Langley, saw a need to organize an association that would recognize the contributions made by the Air Police, later called Security Police, who served in Vietnam and Thailand. It was shortly after that time that the Vietnam Security Police Association came to life.

John's enthusiasm quickly spread to other former SPs that performed rather unique duties in that Southeast Asian War. Unlike many other veteran organizations, this was to be for the thousands of SPs that wanted an association where they could share their experiences and enjoy the camaraderie of their fellow veterans.

Today, the V.S.P.A. is over 250 members strong and growing. It was quickly discovered that locating former SPs after 25-30 years was no easy task. But with the growth and the excitement it generated, over 300 former SPs have been located and it is our goal to be the "Best"!
